The great deeds of these men may go unnoticed, but they are not. Every day they strive to provide the Cuban people - committed to their time - with the necessary inputs to develop processes whatever their specificities.

Yesterday was the framework for an action that deserves our recognition of those men who carry a country on their shoulders; Because the planned rice extraction plan was exceeded, the plan consisting of 930 tons, corresponding to the actual 985 tons.

For them, our recognition for fulfilling their work as workers and our gratitude for serving their people.
