On May 17, the MAMLa event took place at the Hotel Nacional in Havana, Cuba. Colleagues linked to the organization who belong to the maritime sector were present and it was a space that allowed them to share and exchange opinions. "In the interventions raised, from the conferences and panels, the competencies of women at sea were manifested. When making the conclusions of the event, Marta Oramas highlighted the priority given to the Program for the Advancement of Women in the sector" - I point out in the official account in X of the Ministry of Transportation.
