

What 20 years is nothing?

Language

English

That is just a phrase from Carlos Gardel...20 years is a lifetime, the life that our Director José Antonio Olivares Díaz has led as an active worker in the Eastern Port Services Company. Just one day like today, in 2004, he began as a trainee, after having completed his university studies as a Bachelor of Economics, his knowledge and skills served as a boost and in less than a year he occupied a management position and in the following years others of the same category, with satisfactory results, this transition, from the base, gave him enough experience to earn the position of General Director of the entity, which he assumed in a stage of challenges and challenges, with great courage.

His personal characteristics, owner of a warm, natural, friendly personality, serious when necessary and cheerful when necessary, with an unparalleled will, together with accumulated wisdom, make him a leader who draws the masses, a driving force that manages to unite human forces until achieving the fulfillment of any task, objectives and plans.

The general feeling of all the Guillermones is that he has managed to lead us on the right path, always guided by his insight, firm ideas and his vision of the future.

Due to his upward trajectory, his indisputable leadership, constantly contributing to the maritime port activity in the province, for keeping the name of the company in a top place, he is worthy of the recognition and congratulations of all port workers.
