The Antillana Salvage Company, part of our Maritime Port Business Group, is celebrating its 51st anniversary today!

Over the years, Antillana, which is dedicated to carrying out maritime salvage operations for domestic and foreign vessels and guiding them to safe harbor, lifting heavy cargo and removing maritime debris, as well as performing specialized underwater work, has successfully achieved its social objective. The tireless dedication of this team is a testament to its professionalism and spirit of collaboration.

Its recognition in the Maritime Port Business System is the result of years of dedication and effort, and this anniversary is a perfect occasion to celebrate all its achievements and look to the future with optimism and determination. May it continue to reap success and provide exemplary service in the years to come. Congratulations, Antillana!
